AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE

GREATER MIAMI CONVENTION AND VISITORS BUREAU

Eighteen-Time Winner

Miami's the place to plan your event if you want your attendees to love their time with you and rave about it after they go back home. Colors are brighter here. Tastes are sweeter. Breezes are balmier. And business is more creative.

Your attendees can swim with a dolphin. Take all their meals al fresco. Browse for vintage mid-century finds, or shop at one of Miami's many outdoor malls

If Miami is starting to sound like the place you should plan your next event, you're starting to understand. We've got the best weather, the hottest restaurants, the hippest shops, the most accommodating hotels, and the most beautiful people anywhere in the world.

Everywhere you turn there's something to explore — a colorful burst of rare and exotic orchids, a brightly colored macaw, a brand new Spanish restaurant, a thought-provoking art exhibit.

Plus we're the only city in America with two sparkling new performing arts centers designed by superstars Cesar Pelli and Frank Gehry. We're the only city in the world with a brand-new cultural arts center, a new world-class baseball stadium adjacent to downtown, a new art gallery district, and a new science museum scheduled to open soon.

Miami's the international city where you'll hear languages and dialects from around the world. Meet people from every corner of the earth. Find fashions from New York, Paris, Rome and Sao Paulo. Art from Basel. Celebrities just in from Hollywood. Rock bands from Argentina. String quartets from Europe.

What you won't find in Miami is the same old same old. No usual suspects. No been there, done that. We're brighter, hipper, hotter, cooler, friendlier, sunnier, sultrier, tastier, and more sensuous than anywhere you've ever been before.

There's more to do in Miami than anywhere. All major league sports; NASCAR's Homestead-Miami Speedway, Sony Open, Cadillac Golf Championship at Trump National Doral, plus more golf and tennis than anywhere. And two national parks — the Biscayne National Preserve and Everglades National Park.

Your guests can shoot a round of golf. Try to get under the limbo stick. Rollerblade. Whack a tennis ball. Build a sand castle. Run on the beach. Watch the cruise ships sail past downtown's glittering skyline. Water-ski. Play beach volleyball.

When it comes to coming and going, no destination has invested more on transportation making hosting an event in Miami just as easy as possible. Miami International Airport boasts new terminals and a high-speed train to whisk travelers from plane to baggage claim and on to the new intermodal center for access to rental cars, taxis and limos, and public transportation. And now the new Metrorail offers service directly to downtown Miami. Imagine the meeting your attendees will want to come to. It's so Miami. C&IT

Thirteen-Time Winner

Bring your meeting or event to New Orleans and you'll find more than one-of-a-kind hotels, restaurants and conference facilities in America's most unique city. A walkable place where centuries-old architecture is the backdrop for a culture so invigorating, it'll rouse your spirit. You'll discover a commitment to the future that inspires everyone who visits or meets in the most authentic city in America — New Orleans.

New Orleans welcomed 9.01 million visitors in 2012, the highest numbers in the city's history and an increase of 5.6 percent from 2010. In addition to hundreds of prominent conventions, New Orleans hosts major events such as the Super Bowl, Mardi Gras and the French Quarter Festival, known as the largest free music festival in the South.

Cuisine and More

Time in New Orleans isn't kept in hours or days, but in meals. When dining in New Orleans, experience a culinary adventure that spans a wide array of cuisines. Now with more restaurants than ever from Cajun and Creole to soul and contemporary French, award-winning chefs create food for your taste buds and nourishment for your soul.

Music is where New Orleans' first settlers found common ground, and no other city loves music more. Nowhere else does it occur more effortlessly or more joyously. Jazz was born in New Orleans while rhythm and blues, gospel, Cajun and zydeco all express the rich melting pot that is the city's heritage.

The Great Hall of the New Orleans Ernest N. Morial Convention Center made its debut in January 2013, featuring a 60,300-sf divisible Great Hall, 25,400-sf multiuse prefunction space, with hotel-like appointments throughout. The impressive 1-million-sf center's features include a 4,660-sf junior ballroom, complete with a 3,420-sf rooftop terrace, 980-sf indoor balcony and a 5,700-sf executive club lounge.

In 2014, New Orleans will host the WWE Wrestlemania XXX, as well as the 63rd NBA All-Star Game at the New Orleans Arena, home to the NBA's New Orleans Pelicans.

New Orleans' venues are unparalleled, providing top-tier service to meeting and event planners with the lagniappe — a little something extra — that compels guests to return. Home to parade floats, Blaine Kern's Mardi Gras World offers a diverse selection of event spaces that have successfully accommodated groups from 10 guests to 10,000. The National World War II Museum offers a one-of-a-kind aesthetic for meetings and events, and its Boeing Center offers more than 26,000 sf of space.
